WEDDING DOCUMENTS REQUIRED IN FIJI

The marriage parties must forward certified photocopies of their personal documents to the Resort for verification purpose at least two months before the wedding. Original (Personal) documents to be presented to the Resort Wedding Coordinator by the party on arrival

The following documents are required to get married in Fiji. Original copies must be brought with you to Fiji, and presented to the resort's wedding coordinator by the party upon arrival

- Original Birth Certificate of Bride and Groom with original and valid passports of Bride and Groom
- Single status declaration of Bride and Groom
- If divorced, original Certificate of Divorce of Bride and/or Groom
- Name of two witnesses who are over the age of 21 years
- If Bride and/or Groom are/is under the age of 21 years, Fiji law requires Letters of Consent from both parents. If one of the parents is deceased a Death Certificate is required.
- Completed and signed Marriage License Form. A Marriage License Form will be sent to the Bride and Groom one month prior to the wedding for completion and signing. This will need to be sent back to your Wedding Planner to pre-approve the marriage license including certified copies of the required documents stated.

Celebrant or Ministers

The resort offers the choice of a Celebrant or Minister to conduct ceremonies here in Fiji. We also have vow templates reflecting different denominations as well as celebrant cues to assist couples in putting together their vows. This is issued upon specific request.

Catholic Wedding Requirement

A Pre-nuptial Form/Certificate and Letter of Certification from the couple's priest is to be sent 60 days prior to the wedding Planner in order to have a local Catholic priest conduct the wedding.

Extras

The resort can cater to additional themes and requests outside what we normally offer, we suggest that you send through images to support your request and are more than happy to work with you to provide the service required the request is dependent on availability and is at additional costs..

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Wananavu Beach Resort will only be able to confirm your wedding within 12 months of your wedding date based on availability. Should there be any dates outside, we can still hold dates tentatively until we are between the booking periods.

Once confirmation is received of your booking, we will issue you with a contract outlining all requirements including our terms & condition.

We require the signed contract to be returned to us within seven (7) days of contract issue date. An initial non-refundable deposit of 25% off the wedding package is also due at this time. Subsequent deposit payments will be included in the contract with full payment required within 30 days before the Wedding.

Kindly be advised that weddings are not usually conducted in Fiji on Sundays and public holidays unless special arrangements are made.

OUR BRIDE FOR THE DAY

Wananavu appreciates that every bride is special and we will honor this day for her by only conducting one wedding per day.

CANCELLATION POLICY

We understand that from time to time things change, which is why we have developed a flexible approach to cancellations and applicable charges for you, subject to the Resorts receipt of any cancellation notification from you as follows:

180 days prior to arrival	75% Deposit will be refunded in full
Between 120 - 179 days prior to arrival	50% cancellation fees apply
Within 119-60 days of arrival	100% cancellation fees apply

"Let us be a part of your special day"
